FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OneShield, Inc. Receives 'Strong Positive' Rating in Leading Analyst Firm's MarketScope Report

WESTBOROUGH, Mass., April 2, 2009 -- OneShield Inc, a leading provider of policy administration solutions (PAS) for the property and casualty insurance industry, today announced OneShield Dragon(r) achieved a "Strong Positive," which is the highest possible rating, in the recently published Gartner MarketScope for North American Property and Casualty Insurance Policy Administration Systems Report.* OneShield was among several policy administration vendors evaluated in the report.

"The OneShield team is extremely proud to receive this rating from Gartner," said Glenn Anschutz, president and CEO for OneShield. "Our growing customer base continues to benefit from the Dragon functionality and our commitment to providing policy administration solutions that meet the insurance industry's unique business and technology challenges."

Gartner's MarketScope report evaluates PAS vendors based on the following criteria: market understanding, product strategy, product/service capabilities, overall viability, customer experience, sales strategy and sales execution/pricing.

OneShield Dragon is a tools-based, data-driven insurance underwriting, policy administration, rating and workflow system. Based on proven insurance practices and a well-defined data model, Dragon provides configurable and modifiable options to meet today's goals and to adapt to future demands.
