OneShield and JK Tech Announce Strategic Partnership to Enhance Delivery Team Capabilities

Marlborough, MA – July 26, 2023: OneShield, a leading provider of innovative insurance technology solutions, is pleased to announce their strategic partnership with JK Tech, a global IT services and solutions company. This collaboration aims to augment OneShield's delivery, reinforcing their commitment to delivering exceptional customer experiences.

As the insurance industry continues to evolve and adapt to rapidly changing market dynamics, there is an increasing demand for cutting-edge technology solutions. OneShield has been at the forefront of this transformation, offering a comprehensive suite of cloud-based core systems and digital engagement solutions to help insurance carriers streamline their operations, improve efficiency, and enhance customer satisfaction.

"We are delighted to join forces with OneShield in this strategic partnership," said Alope Paskar, President and CEO at JK Tech. "By combining our technical expertise with their industry-leading solutions, we are poised to deliver exceptional results and drive successful outcomes for insurers, insurance start-ups, and MGAs. This collaboration strengthens our commitment to providing cutting-edge technology and Hyperautomation solutions that meet the evolving needs of the insurance industry."

Through this collaboration, OneShield aims to leverage JK Tech's skilled resources to enhance its delivery team's capabilities and increase its capacity to undertake large-scale projects. By combining the domain knowledge and industry-leading technology solutions of OneShield with JK Tech's technical proficiency, the partnership aims to accelerate the deployment of transformative digital solutions for some of the leading carriers in the North American P&C insurance space.

OneShield's CEO, Cameron Parker, expressed excitement about the partnership, stating, "We are thrilled to partner with JK Tech to strengthen our delivery team and expand our capabilities. This collaboration enables us to effectively meet the evolving needs of our customers, offering faster time-to-market, enhanced scalability, and increased innovation in technology initiatives. From digital transformations to technical projects for insurance start-ups and MGAs, we are committed to empowering our clients across the entire spectrum of the insurance industry."
