HAI Group Goes Live on OneShield Enterprise Platform 7, Launching General Liability and Excess Products

Marlborough, MA – November 14, 2024 – OneShield, a leading provider of core software solutions to the insurance industry, proudly announces that HAI Group, a valued client and insurance carrier specializing in the public and affordable housing markets, has successfully launched OneShield Enterprise to support its General Liability (GL) and Excess products.

This milestone highlights HAI Group's commitment to digital transformation by leveraging the advanced capabilities of OneShield Enterprise Platform 7 to respond quickly to market demands, expand its technology ecosystem, and deliver an exceptional policyholder experience.

"Choosing OneShield for this legacy system transformation was a strategic decision rooted in its industry expertise, robust, scalable technology, and delivery focus," said Troy LePage, HAI Group's COO, Executive Vice President, and Assistant Treasurer. "This transition from an aging core system to OneShield's platform - driven by the dedication and determination of HAI Group's internal teams and our OneShield partners - improves operational efficiency and supports the continued delivery of exceptional customer service."

HAI Group's deployment of OneShield Enterprise's Platform 7 aims to streamline operations and improve flexibility and efficiency within its product offerings.

"We are thrilled to support HAI Group in their legacy transformation journey," said Rakesh Parikh, OneShield's Head of Global Delivery, SVP. "By going live with GL and Excess products on our latest platform, HAI Group is paving the way for next-generation insurance operations. The collaborative effort between our teams has culminated in a robust solution that enables HAI Group to deliver exceptional value and service to their clients."

OneShield's solutions are designed to support the unique needs of insurers and MGAs of all sizes, managing policy, billing, claims, and more - all on a single platform. OneShield Enterprise's Platform 7 further enhances this value, delivering a modernized infrastructure with advanced scalability, integration capabilities, and security.
